THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. The structure of a typical FDJ Kreis Directorate is as follows:

   a. The First Secretary of the Kreis is responsible for all political work in the Kreis.

   b. The Second Secretary is responsible for the direction of the Abteilung Verbandsorgane (this corresponds to LOPM in an SED Kreis Directorate).

   c. The Third Secretary is responsible for pioneer work.

   d. The following departments exist in each Kreis and have responsibilities as outlined below:

      1) Abteilung Verbandsorgane - The Second Secretary is the chief of this department. He is assisted by two to four organizational instructors, the number depending on the size of the Kreis. These instructors are responsible for the various fields of work in the Kreis. There is also one instructor for statistics.

      2) The department for young pioneers and schools - The Third Secretary is department chief. Under him there are two or three instructors.

      3) The department for agitation and propaganda - The chief of this department participates in all meetings of the Secretariat. In the larger Kreise he is the Fourth Secretary and has several secretaries under him. In smaller Kreise there are only one or two secretaries for the FDJ school year and one for culture and sport.

2. Altogether there are about 12 to 15 functionaries in the FDJ Kreis directorates. Under them in each Kreis there is an instructor for finances who is responsible for the treasury.

3. The following are FDJ First Secretaries in the Kreise of Bezirk Halle:
